Pronoun Review

Choose the correct type of pronoun.
The general tried to help his daughter.
The general tried to help his daughter.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Joe can keep himself company.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Joe can keep himself company.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
The boy who went home early should still do his part.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
The boy who went home early should still do his part.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
That is not enough money for Kate to buy flowers.
That is not enough money for Kate to buy flowers.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Everyone needs help to put the equipment away.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Everyone needs help to put the equipment away.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Katia, who went to the store, bought ripe strawberries.
Katia, who went to the store, bought ripe strawberries.
Sally said she had to go home to do the dishes.
Sally said she had to go home to do the dishes.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
The science report that was under the couch was due today.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
The science report that was under the couch was due today.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Those are the shoes that Moira wears to school.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Those are the shoes that Moira wears to school.
Many went to Yellowstone National Park.
Many went to Yellowstone National Park.
That doesn’t look like banana bread!

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
That doesn’t look like banana bread!

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Father asked Joni a question, but she didn’t hear him.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Father asked Joni a question, but she didn’t hear him.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
To whom did Mike give the pencil?

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
To whom did Mike give the pencil?

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Some families take their pets with them when they travel.
Some families take their pets with them when they travel.
Aaron takes himself too seriously.
Aaron takes himself too seriously.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Mr. and Mrs. Wateri gave away their used books.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Mr. and Mrs. Wateri gave away their used books.
Sarah, where did you get that?

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Sarah, where did you get that?

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Please get out of my way.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Please get out of my way.

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Who caught the runaway gerbil?

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Who caught the runaway gerbil?

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Give yourself credit for doing well on this review!

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
Give yourself credit for doing well on this review!

- Personal
- Relative
- Indefinite
- Interrogative
- Demonstrative
- Reflexive
VERBS-I smelled the coffee.

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping
VERBS-I smelled the coffee.

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping
The coffee smelled delicious!

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping
I ran to the store.

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping
I ran to the store.

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping
I ran to the store.

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping
She had slept for several hours.

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping
She had slept for several hours.

- Action (Transitive or Intransitive)
- Linking
- Helping